MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Keynote lecture from Dr Primož Strojani
Head of Radiotherapy Dept. at Institute of Oncology,
Ljubljana

Report from VCS 2006 Mid-year symposium:
Canine Osteosarcoma

Abstracts:

This is your conference! You are invited to submit Abstracts (see form on website: www.esvonc.org). Abstract presentations should take 12 minutes with 3 minutes allowed for questions. The style of the abstract is flexible but preference will be given, in order, to the following:

1. Results of basic research project, a clinical trial or retrospective case series.
2. Preliminary report from on-going research project (basic science or clinical study)
3. Brief review of a specific subject.

ESVONC Junior Research Award

Presenting authors under 38 years old will be eligible for consideration for this award BUT their abstract must be in the type: 'Results of a basic research project, a clinical trial or a retrospective case series' and must NOT have been published elsewhere.

In addition to a citation, the award is to enable the author to present their abstract at the next Veterinary Cancer Society Conference in the USA.

Gala Dinner

Eating & drinking (Slovenian wines are very good)
Make new friends & meeting old friends
Speeches (short), presentations, entertainment.

Closing date for Abstracts:
15th Feb 2006
